INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

For partners of the company Sarantis Czech Republic, ltd.

I conducted audit of the attached financial statement for the year ended 31st December 2006 of the company

Sarantis Czech Republic, Itd. IN 25705971, based in Prague 3, Roháčova 77/1095, 130 00.

The company is mainly engaged in purchasing and selling of goods. Financial statements are the responsibility of the statutory body of the company. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on the audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditor's act no. 254/2000 Coll. and International auditor's standards and application clauses of Chamber of auditors of Czech Republic. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statement gives in all significant considerations a true and fair view of assets, liabilities and equity of the company Sarantis Czech Republic, ltd. as of 31st December 2006 and financial position and operating income of the business year 2006 in accordance with act on accounting and relevant legal regulations of the Czech Republic.

V Praze dne 5. března 2001

Ing Lachslav Langr

Declaration of management of the company Sarantis Czech

Republic, s.r.o., domiciled Praha 3, Roháčova 77/1095, 130 00, IN 257 05 971 to events after and before the date of the financial statement as of 31st December 2006

In connection with the audit of annual financial statement as of 31st December 2006 we give you the following assurances which are true and correspond with our best sense and conscience:

a) Events before the date of the financial statement (as of 31st December 2006)

- all the transactions proceeded by the company were properly noted in the actuarial documents.
- we have given the auditor an access to all actuarial and other papers, which could have significant influence on the financial statement (performance according to the contract conclusions and receivables and payables resulting from these, including possible losses). There exist no intentions which could significantly influence the value of assets and liabilities.
- we acknowledge the responsibility for actuarial and taxation correctness of all cases accounted which concern business relations with external companies whose contractual base is only at external companies' disposal,
- the company has proper property rights to all assets which are noted in the balance sheet and there are no other liens or burdens other from those stated in the enclosure to the financial statement. All the assets, to which the company has property rights, is stated in the financial statement.
- we detected and brought forward all information about receivables,
- all payables of the company are properly stated in the financial statement or in the enclosure eventually,
- there exist no other significant payables (costs and revenues respectively) which would need accruals and deferrals or stating in the financial statement or in the enclosure,
- there happened no breaking of legal regulations, including regulations relative to the subject of activity, the causes of which would have to be stated in the financial statement or which would be a base for writing unanticipated losses (except for events stated in the financial statement, or in accruals and deferrals eventually),
- tax base is numbered on the basis of qualified and responsible assessment of tax unused costs in compliance with valid tax regulations,
- there occurred no other events until the date of financial statement, which would require its changing or finishing, than those stated in the enclosure,
- we acknowledge our responsibility for truthfulness of proposed financial statement processed in compliance with actuarial principles including released information.

b) Events after the date of the financial statement (after 31st December 2006)

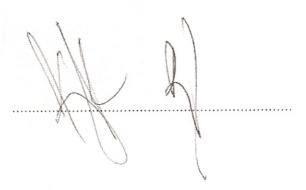

- the company didn't accept any new payables, credits or loans or any new guaranties,
- there was no significant sale or purchase of assets realized, nor are any of these actions planned in the nearest future,
- there was no significant asset expropriated or damaged, e.g. by natural event or by foreign people's fault,
- there were no unusual actuarial entries realized, nor are such events planned in the nearest future.

- there was no progress of events related to risk fields and potential payables recorded, which would need generating the reserves or adjustments reacting to these risks,
- there occurred no other events after the date of financial statement which would need eventually its adjustment than those presented in the enclosure.

c) Taking the laws and regulations into account

- there were no unusual provisions or intermediary payments accepted that are unusually higher that those normally paid by accounting entity,
- there were no purchases realized for prices unusually lower than standard price,
- there were no unusual cash flows, eventually bearer cheques in significant amounts performed,
- there hasn't come to payments for unspecified services or to offering loans of significant amount to advisors, related members, employees of the accounting entity or to state employees,
- there hasn't come to unusual transactions with companies registered in countries with low tax burdens or without taxation.
- there hasn't come to investigation by state agencies during the accounting period,
- the accounting system used involves all control mechanisms needed for securing the undisturbed series of chronological accounting entries.
